

My Name Is Jock Stewart

words & music: traditional

C G Am F
O my name is Jock Stewart, I'm a can-ny gaun man
C G Am G
And a rovin' young fellow I've be - e - e - en
C G Am F
Ch: So be ea - sy and free, when you're drink - in wi me
C G C
I'm a man you don't meet ev' - ry day.

O my name is Jock Stewart, I'm a canny gaun man
And a rovin' young fellow I've been
So be easy and free, when you're drinkin' wi' me
I'm a man you don't meet every day.

I'm a rovin' young blade, I'm a piper to trade
And many's the tune I can play
So be easy and free, when you're drinkin' wi' me
I'm a man you don't meet every day.

I have acres of land, aye and men at command
And I've always a shilling to spend
So be easy and free, when you're drinkin' wi' me
I'm a man you don't meet every day.

My Name Is Jock Stewart

I go out with my dog, and my gun for to shoot
All along by the banks of the Tay
So be easy and free, when you're drinkin' wi' me
I'm a man you don't meet every day.

So come fill up your glass with brandy and wine
And whatever the cost I will pay
So be easy and free, when you're drinkin' wi' me
I'm a man you don't meet every day.

O my name is Jock Stewart, I'm a canny gaun man
And a rovin' young fellow I've been.
So be easy and free, when you're drinkin' wi' me
I'm a man you don't meet every day.

Originally recorded in the 1950's from Jeannie Robertson. More verses were added by others as it became a Folk Revival favourite.
